

OUR EDITORIAL VALUES

Our stories will be accurate. We'll check information to make sure it's right. If we get something wrong we will correct it quickly.

We will behave responsibly towards children and young people.

We'll respect privacy and personal rights. We won't break the law. We won't harass people.

We will be clear about where facts and opinions come from.

We'll do our best to reflect all kinds of diversity in society. We won't spread hate speech.

We'll get both side of the story and reflect disagreements. We'll keep our own opinions out of our stories.

We won't take bribes or be influenced by outside sources on what stories we cover or how we cover them.

We will never plagiarise others' work